

The issue is dedicated to the 90th anniversary of Yerevan State University

On May 16, 1919, RA Council of Ministers unanimously voted for the proposal to establish a university in Yerevan. The opening ceremony of the University was held in Alexandrapol (present Gyumri) on January 31, 1920. The first lecture was delivered by Stepan Malkhasiants on February 1, 1920, thus commemorating the launch of studies at the University.
