Errata

The article by Gay Helen Perkins and Amy J. W. Slowik entitled "The Value of Research in Academic Libraries," which originally appeared in the March 2013 issue has several errors in the transition from table to text in the Results section. The text in the Results section should read as follows:

"More than one-third (34%) had obtained one master's degree only,"

"Thirty-four percent of the academic libraries had 500,000-1,000,000 volumes,"

"A total of 86 percent of the academic libraries were not ARL-affiliated."

TABLE 4
Has ALA-Accredited Master's Program "No. N=19 82.61%"
Page 148, Table 4

We regret the errors.
