ACRL committees

ACRL has about 20 standing committees to which appointments may be made. These include such committees as Audiovisual, Copyright, Government Relations, Racial and Ethnic Diversity, Research, and Standards and Accreditation. ACRL also has various award committees and committees that help with the work of the association, e.g., Budget, Membership, and Planning. You will find a complete list of the committees and a description of their charges in the ALA Handbook of Organization, 1991-92.

Appointments to ACRL standing committees are made in the spring for terms beginning immediately after the ALA Annual Conference. The Appointments and Nominations Committee recommends to the president-elect of ACRL the names of members who might fill the vacancies. The president-elect makes the final appointments. If you are interested in being considered for an appointment to an ACRL committee, you should complete the ACRL Committee Volunteer Form included in this issue of C&RL News and mail it to Hiram L. Davis, Director of Libraries, Michigan State University Libraries, East Lansing, MI 48824-1048 before December 15, 1991.

Editorial boards

ACRL has six editorial boards:

- the Choice Editorial Board;
- the College & Research Libraries Editorial Board;
- the College & Research Libraries News Editorial Board;
- the New Publications Editorial Board;
- the Publications in Librarianship Editorial Board;

- the Rare Books & Manuscripts Librarianship Editorial Board.

Appointments to editorial boards are made during Midwinter for terms that begin immediately after the ALA Annual Conference. The editors recommend the name of a person to fill the vacancy. The Publications Committee must approve the recommendation, and the president of ACRL makes the appointment.

If you would like to be considered for appointment to an editorial board, contact the editor of the editorial board before December 15, 1991.

Choice Editor: Patricia Sabosik, Choice, 100 Riverview Center, Middletown, CT 06457.

Remember that at any given time there are only a limited number of vacancies on ACRL's committees, sections, and editorial boards. If at first you don't succeed in obtaining an appointment, try again. Make yourself known to committee chairs by sitting in on meetings, volunteering to help with committee projects, etc. If committee chairs see that you are interested in the work of their committees, they may recommend your name to the appropriate appointing body when a vacancy occurs.

For a more detailed discussion of ACRL's appointment process see "The ACRL committee appointment process," by Pat Rom (C&RL News, October 1990, page 885). ■ ■
