Immersion '03

University of Rhode Island
August 1-6, 2003

Whether your institution is just beginning to think about implementing an information literacy component or whether you have a program well underway, Immersion '03 will provide you with the intellectual tools and practical techniques to help your institution build or enhance its instruction program.

Read what participants in last year's program had to say:

"This program renewed my interest in teaching and it gave me plenty of new ideas for the classroom."

"Immersion provides wonderful opportunities to enhance refine or renew one's methods of instruction."

"This is a priceless experience for thinking about information literacy."

Participate in one of the program's two tracks:

Track I: Librarian as Teacher
Focuses on individual development for those who are interested in enhancing, refreshing, or extending their individual instruction skills.

Track II: Librarian as Program Developer
Focuses on developing, integrating, and managing institutional and programmatic information literacy programs.
