

ACRL awards for 1994

Honoring accomplishments and supporting professional development

---

The Association of College and Research Libraries awards program recognizes special achievements and outstanding publications and fosters professional development in academic and research librarianship. Is someone you know deserving of special recognition for their contributions to academic and research librarianship? Take a moment to nominate these outstanding individuals so they can get the recognition they deserve. Please review the requirements for each award and note those for which you or a colleague are eligible.

General submission procedures

Nominations include documentation (a letter) that indicates: 1) your name, address, and phone number, plus the name, address, e-mail address, and phone number of the person you are nominating; 2) narrative supporting the nomination (keeping in mind the award criteria); 3) a current vita.

Individuals may nominate themselves or others. Unless otherwise indicated send nominations and applications to: (Name of the Award), ACRL, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611.

Staff Contact: For a complete list of previous recipients or if you have questions or need help in compiling a nomination contact: Althea Jenkins, (800) 545-2433, ext. 3248, (312) 280-3248, or U55385@uicvm.uic.edu.

ACHIEVEMENT/DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

Academic or Research Librarian of the Year Award

This award recognizes an individual member of the library profession who is making an outstanding national or international contribution to academic or research librarianship and library development.

Award: $3,000 donated by Baker & Taylor.

Criteria: Nominees should have demonstrated achievement in such areas as:

1. Service to the organized profession through ACRL and related organizations.
2. Significant and influential research on academic or research library service.
3. Publication of a body of scholarly and/or theoretical writing contributing to academic or research library development.
4. Planning and implementing a library program of such exemplary quality that it has served as a model for others.

Submission procedure: Send eight copies of the nominating package (see general submission procedure above).

Deadline: December 1, 1993.

Previous recipients: William A. Moffett (1993), Carla Stoffle (1992), Richard De Gennaro (1991), Patricia Battin (1990).

Miriam Dudley Bibliographic Instruction Librarian Award

This award recognizes an individual librarian who has made an especially significant contribution to the advancement of bibliographic instruction in a college or research institution. The award honors Miriam Dudley, whose pioneering efforts in the field of bibliographic instruction led to the formation of the ACRL Bibliographic Instruction Section.

Award: $1,000 cash donated by Mountainside Publishing Company on behalf of its publication, Research Strategies: A Journal of Library Concepts and Instruction. The award is administered by the Bibliographic Instruction Section of ACRL.

Criteria: Nominees should have achieved distinction in one or more of the following areas:

1. Planning and implementation of an academic bibliographic instruction program that has served as a model for other programs nationally or regionally.
2. Production of a body of research and publication that has a demonstrable impact on the concepts and methods of teaching and information-seeking strategies in a college or research institution.

3. Sustained participation in organizations, at the national or regional level, devoted to the promotion and enhancement of academic bibliographic instruction.

4. Promotion, development, and integration of education for bibliographic instruction in ALA-accredited library schools or professional continuing education programs that have served as models for other courses and programs.

Submission procedure: Send nominating package (see general submission procedure above) to: Sharon Mader, Depaul University Libraries, 2350 N. Kenmore, Chicago, IL 60614. Call Sharon if you have questions or need assistance in compiling this nomination. Phone: (312) 362-8066.

ACRL Approval Plans

ACRL publications provide practical ideas, tools and methods for: management, bibliographic instruction, special collections, collection development, statistics & research.

The convenient and cost-cutting ACRL approval order plan provides automatic priority shipping of ACRL's new books at a 20% discount to ACRL members (10% to non-members).

There are two approval plan categories from which to choose:

Plan P guarantees that you will automatically be sent all new ACRL publications including CLIP Notes. ACRL publishes approximately 5 to 6 new titles each year.

Plan PC is exclusively for titles in the CLIP Notes (College Library Information Packets) series. CLIP Notes collect data and sample documents from academic libraries to assist librarians in establishing or refining services and operations.

Easy to enroll. Call or write Mary C. Taylor, ACRL program officer, indicating the category you have chosen. (ACRL/ALA, Approval Plan, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611; 1-800-545-2433 ext. 2515).

BIS Innovation in Bibliographic Instruction Award

This award recognizes and honors librarians who have developed and implemented innovative approaches to bibliographic instruction at their respective institutions.

Award: A citation presented by the BIS Awards Committee at the BIS Annual Conference Program.

Criteria: Recipients must have implemented their ideas recently (within the past two years) in an academic or research library. The emphasis of this award is on creativity and innovation.

Eligibility: There are no restrictions as to the size of the instructional effort, academic discipline, target audience, or techniques employed.

Submission Procedure: Applications should be submitted along with the nomination form to the chair of the Innovation Award Subcommittee, Ann Perkins, Public Services Department, CSUN Library, California State University, 18111 Nordheff St., Northridge, CA 91328-1289 (818/885-2277). For further questions or a copy of the nomination form, contact the Subcommittee chair.

Deadline: November 1, 1993

ACRL/EBSS Distinguished Education and Behavioral Sciences Librarian Award

This award honors a distinguished academic librarian who has made an outstanding contribution as an education and/or behavioral sciences librarian through accomplishments and service to the profession.

Award: A citation presented by the EBSS Award Committee.

Criteria: Nominees should have demonstrated achievements in some of the following areas:

1. Service to the organized profession through ACRL/EBSS and related organizations;
2. Significant academic library service in the areas of education and/or behavioral sciences;
3. Significant research and publication in areas of academic library services in education and/or behavioral sciences;
4. Planning and implementation of academic library programs in education and/or the behavioral sciences disciplines of such exemplary quality that they could serve as a model for others.

The nominee does not have to meet all of the stated criteria.

Submission Procedure: Send ten copies of the award nomination form to Laurene E. Zaporozhcz, Louisiana State University in Shreveport, Noel Memorial Library, One University Place, Shreveport, LA 71115. For questions or to request a copy of the form call Laurene E. Zaporozhcz at (318) 797-5203.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND RESEARCH

Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship

This award fosters research in academic librarianship by encouraging and assisting doctoral students in the field with their dissertation research.

Award: $1,000 cash and citation donated by the Institute for Scientific Information.

Eligibility: The recipient of the fellowship must meet the following qualifications:

1. Be an active doctoral student in the academic librarianship area in a degree-granting institution.
2. Have completed all coursework.
3. Have had a dissertation proposal accepted by the institution.
4. A recipient of the fellowship may not receive it a second time.
5. Applicant need not be an ACRL member.

Criteria: The proposal will be judged primarily on merit with emphasis on the following:

1. Potential significance of the research to the field of academic librarianship. (No attempt will be made to define academic librarianship but the subject should be consistent with topics usually published in College & Research Libraries or presented at ACRL meetings.)
2. Validity of the methodology and proposed methods of analysis.
3. Originality and creativity.

THE TOPICS THAT DEFINE OUR TIMES.

Reported to you by
The CQ Researcher for 70 years.

Since 1923, The CQ Researcher has tackled the toughest issues, one at a time. From the prohibition of alcohol to the war on drugs, from child labor laws to youth gangs, and from the emergence of Nazism to the fall of the Berlin Wall.

All to bring you thoroughly researched, impartial reports on the day's most current issues. We've been at it since 1923, and we won't stop until we run out of topics.

For information call Gigi Perkinson at (202) 887-6279 or (800) 432-2250 ext. 279

4. Clarity and completeness of the proposal.
5. Presentation of a convincing plan for completion in a reasonable amount of time.
6. Evidence of a continuing interest in scholarship such as a previous publication record.

Submission procedure: Qualified students who wish to be considered for the fellowship should contact the ACRL office for a complete outline of proposal requirements.

Deadline: December 1, 1993.

Martinus Nijhoff International West European Specialist Study Grant

This grant supports research on Western European studies, librarianship, or the book trade.

Award: A maximum of 10,000 Dutch guilders (or U.S. dollar equivalent) donated by Martinus Nijhoff International, a subscription agent and book dealer with headquarters in The Netherlands. This study grant covers air travel to and from Europe, transportation in Europe, and lodging and board for no more than 14 consecutive days. Funds may not be used for salaries, research-related supplies, publication costs, conference fees, or equipment purchases.

Criteria: The primary criterion for awarding the grant is the significance and utility of the proposed project as a contribution to the study of the acquisition, organization, or use of library materials from or relating to Western Europe. Current or historical subjects may be treated. The award jury will review proposals with the following in mind:

1. What is the work to be accomplished? The proposal should be as explicit as possible about the current state of knowledge in the area and what will be achieved by the successful completion of the study.
2. What is the need for and value of the proposed research? The proposal should provide persuasive evidence that the study is of practical use or scholarly value to the wider community served by the grant.
3. What is the methodology for carrying out the proposed work? The research design should be as specific as possible and demonstrate why the European component is essential.
4. Is the work accomplishable within the time frame proposed? If the study extends beyond the 14-day limit of the grant, the proposal should specify how the additional work will be completed and funded.
5. Are the applicant's qualifications sufficient to carry out the study?

Submission procedure: Librarians who wish to be considered for this study grant should contact the ACRL office to receive full instructions on proposal submission, and grantee obligations.

Deadline: December 1, 1993.

Samuel Lazerow Fellowship for Research in Acquisitions or Technical Services in an Academic or Research Library

This award fosters advances in acquisitions or technical services by providing librarians a fellowship for travel or writing in those fields. Research projects in collection development or the compilation of bibliographies will not be supported by this fellowship.

Award: $1,000 cash and a citation donated by the Institute for Scientific Information.

Criteria: The proposals will be judged with an emphasis on the following:

1. Potential significance of the project to acquisitions or technical services work.
2. Originality and creativity.
3. Clarity and completeness of the proposal.
4. Evidence of an interest in scholarship, such as a previous publication record.

Submission procedure: Brief proposals (five pages or less, double-spaced) should include the following:

1. Description of research, travel, or writing project.
2. Schedule for project.
3. Estimate of expenses (e.g., professional travel, computer time, photocopying, typing.)
4. Recipients of the fellowship will be asked to submit a brief report on the results of their research.
5. An up-to-date curriculum vitae should accompany proposal.

Deadline: December 1, 1993.

AMIGOS Bibliographic Council, Inc.

Eligibility: Catalogs published by American or Canadian institutions in conjunction with an exhibition of books and/or manuscripts which has taken place or which is in progress before August 31, 1993, are eligible. Catalogs must be published between September 1, 1992, and August 31, 1993. The entries will be divided into three budget categories—expensive, moderately expensive, and inexpensive—based upon the production costs as outlined in the entry form. Catalogs may be of varying formats, styles, and scope, but each must represent an exhibition which has taken place. Catalogs may be intended for various types of audiences: e.g., scholars, students, general public. Catalogs may have various purposes: e.g., publicity, dissemination of collection information, attraction of donors, commemoration of a special occasion, etc.

Criteria: Catalogs will be judged on the level of accuracy and consistency of presentation, their clarity, quality of design, and usefulness to the intended audience.

Submission procedure: Four (4) copies of the catalog must be submitted with an entry form (available from the chair of the committee) to the chair: Elaine Smyth, Head, Rare Book Collection, Louisiana State University, Hill Memorial Library, Baton Rouge, LA 70803. All catalog submissions will become the property of RBMS. If you have any questions, call Elaine Smyth at (504) 388-6547.

Deadline: September 30, 1993.
