

The Librarian:

book keeper & bookkeeper

Ever since the founding of the first library, it has been the librarian's responsibility not only to maintain the collection, but to manage the budget. In many cases the library's budget has doubled, and doubled again, resulting in a substantial sum of money which is available for the purchase of new titles, as well as the re-binding of old ones and the initial hard-cover binding of periodicals.

As a bookkeeper, every librarian should be familiar with library binding and library pre-binding—the two most effective ways of saving money for your library.
