

Herbert C. Morton and others (151 pages, April 1988), is an annotated bibliography of books and articles on publishing, libraries, scholarly research, and issues related to the advancement of learning in the humanities and social sciences. It provides substantial annotation for more than 100 books and journal articles as well as a listing of an additional 150 related titles. Herbert C. Morton, formerly director of the Office of Scholarly Communication and Technology, discusses the major themes emerging from the literature in an introductory essay. Copies are available for $27.50 (hardback) or $14.75 (paper) from the University Press of America, 4720 Boston Way, Lanham, MD 20706. ISBN 0-8191-6825-4; 0-8191-6826-2 (pb).

• Die Wunderbare Neue Welt, compiled by Ilse E. Kramer (229 pages, 1988), is the first "pilot edition" of a comprehensive list of German books and related materials about the Americas in the John Carter Brown Library from 1493 to 1840. This volume begins with a 1474 calendar by Joannes Regiomontanus (a copy of which Columbus carried with him on his fourth voyage) and ends with the beginning of the Thirty Years' War in 1618. Roughly one quarter of the Library's German Americana holdings are listed; some 1,500 entries will be included in subsequent fascicles, bringing the imprint dates forward to 1840. The catalogue lists work by German authors in any language and works by non-German authors that were translated into German. A limited number of copies are available for sale at $20 from the John Carter Brown Library, Brown University, Box 1894, Providence, RI 02912. ■■

Deadlines: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g. September 2 for the October issue). If the second falls on a weekend, the deadline is the following Monday. Late job listings will be accepted on a space-available basis after the second of the month.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $5.00 per line for ACRL members, $6.25 for others. Late job notices are $12.00 per line for members, $14.00 for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status.

Telephone: All telephone orders should be confirmed by a written order mailed to ACRL headquarters as soon as possible. Orders should be accompanied by a typewritten copy of the ad to be used in proofreading. An additional $10 will be charged for ads taken over the phone (except late job notices or display ads).

Guidelines: For ads which list an application deadline, that date must be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary figure. Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

7-12—Rare books: 10th annual Out-of-Print and Antiquarian Book Market Seminar, Driscoll University Center, University of Denver. A comprehensive survey of the market through a series of lectures, demonstrations, discussions, and workshops. Keynote speaker: Bernard M. Rosenthal. CEUs: 3.0. Free: $450 (deposit due by July 1, check payable to Book Seminars, Inc.). Contact: Margaret K. Goggin, 4024 N.W. 15th Street, Gainesville, FL 32605; (904) 378-8144.

Contact: Barbara Sarjeant, EUSIDIC, First Floor Offices, 9/9A High Street, Calne, Wiltshire, England.

20-24—Paper: "Papermaking by Hand in America," a national conference on papermaking, sponsored by the Friends of the Lilly Library and the Friends of the Dard Hunter Paper Museum, Indiana University Bloomington. A tour of the Twinrocker Handmade Paper Mill in Brookston, Indiana, is scheduled. Contact: Friends of the Lilly Library, Lilly Library, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47405.

must be no sooner than the 20th day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 20 for the October issue). All job announcements should include a salary figure. Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

JOBLINE: Call (312) 944-6795 for late-breaking job ads for academic and research library positions. A pre-recorded summary of positions listed with the service is revised weekly; each Friday a new tape includes all ads received by 1:00 p.m. the previous day. Each listing submitted will be carried on the recording for two weeks. The charge for each two-week listing is $30 for ACRL members and $35 for non-members.

Fast Job Listing Service: A special newsletter for those actively seeking positions. This service lists job postings received at ACRL headquarters four weeks before they appear in C&RL News, as well as ads which, because of narrow deadlines, will not appear in C&RL News. The cost of a six-month subscription is $10 for ACRL members and $15 for non-members.
