

Richard Bopp, assistant map and geography librarian at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, has retired after 22 years of service.

Jane Garner, head of Manuscripts and Archival Processing, Benson Latin American Collection, retired after 36 years with the University of Texas at Austin.

Jean Geil, music special collections coordinator at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, has retired after 29 years of service.

Nelson J. Gilman has retired from his position as director of the University of Southern California University Health Sciences Libraries and the Norris Medical Library after 29 years of service.

Marcy Joncich, reference librarian at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, has retired after 29 years of service.

Robert Jones, cinema studies and theater librarian at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, has retired after 30 years of service.

Barbara Loomis, assistant engineering librarian at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, has retired after 30 years of service.

Lois Pausch, geology librarian at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, has retired after 28 years of service.

Walter Stubbs has retired as the documents librarian/assistant social studies librarian at Southern Illinois University Carbondale (SIUC), after 32 years of service to Morris Library. Stubbs joined the library's faculty in 1968 as assistant social studies librarian and became the documents librarian in 1974. He was active on several library committees, the Illinois Documents Coordinating Council, and had given presentations on government publications and the Internet. In 1985, Greenwood Press published his book entitled Congressional Committees, 1789-1982: a Checklist.

Deaths

Alma Bennett, retired head of the Social Science department at the University of Missouri-Columbia (UMC), has died. In 1941, Bennett began working as an extension librarian for Emporia State University. Six years later, she became social science librarian at UMC, later becoming head of the social science department at UMC, and retiring in 1975. She was a member of the ALA.

Jack Dalton, dean of the School of Library Service at Columbia University (1959-70), has died. Dalton began his library career at the University of Virginia, where he was assistant reference librarian (1934-35); reference librarian (1936-42); associate librarian (1942-50); and librarian (1950-56). From 1956 to 1959, he was director of the International Relations Office of ALA, was a member of Council (1964-68), and was chair of the Ethics Committee. He was director of the Library Development Center at Columbia University (1970-78), which focused on the needs of those who have limited access to library service. In 1954, Dalton received the J. W. Lippincott Medal and was awarded an honorary lifetime membership in the ALA in 1983. ■

Advertiser index

ACM	941
ACRL	889, 918, 950
American Chemical Society	932
American Psychological Assoc.	937
American Theological Library Association	926
Chemical Abstracts Svc	Cover 2
CHOICE	901, 911
Dialog Corporation	893
EBSCO	Cover 4
E-Global Library	908
Endeavor Information Sys.	Cover 3
Haworth Press	944
H. W. Wilson	884
InfoUSA	927
Lexis-Nexis	881
OCLC	921
Scholarly Resources	947
SWETS/Blackwell	912
Theatre Research Data Group	939