Training session on ADA offered at Midwinter

A one-and-a-half-day training session on complying with the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) will be held during the ALA Midwinter Meeting in Los Angeles. The session will run from 1:00-5:30 p.m. on February 3, 1994, and 8:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. on February 4. Sponsored by the Association of Specialized and Cooperative Library Agencies (ASCLA), a division of ALA, the session is open to librarians in all types of libraries who will use the information to inform and train others in ADA compliance requirements.

The session will be presented by Marilyn Golden, policy analyst and trainer, Disability Rights Education and Defense Fund. Golden will explain Titles I and II of the ADA and related compliance requirements with emphasis on library-related issues.

The training session is limited to the first 150 registrants. Deadline for registration is January 14, 1994. Contact the ASCLA office, (800) 545-2433, ext. 4399 for registration materials.

Should BIS change its name? To what?

ACRL's Bibliographic Instruction Section (BIS) wants your input on whether the name of the section accurately reflects the myriad of teaching and educational activities in which members are engaged. Should BIS change its name? And if so, to what? A two-hour discussion forum addressing a possible name change will be held at the Midwinter meeting in Los Angeles on Sunday, February 6, 1994, from 2:00-4:00 p.m. At the forum—sponsored by the BIS Communications Committee, the Continuing Education Committee, and the What's in a Name Task Force—members of the task force will set the context for a possible name change and review the alternatives that have emerged. At the conclusion, the audience will be invited to participate in a general discussion.
