

ALA/ACRL Representatives at Academic Ceremonies

Jane Brugger represented the Association of College and Research Libraries at the inauguration of James L. Chapman as president of West Liberty State College, West Liberty, West Virginia, on September 24. At Rice University on the same day Woodvull Ray Moore attended inauguration ceremonies for Norman Hackerman.

At the dedication of the University of Dayton's new library on September 25, Robert Mowery was the ACRL representative. On September 26, the Max Thompson Learning Media Center was dedicated and a Freedom Shrine unveiled on the South Campus of Macomb County Community College in Warren, Michigan. Avram Rosenthal attended for ACRL.

Mary R. Hughes represented ACRL at the inauguration of George Charles Roche, III, as president of Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Michigan, on October 9, and Mary Louise B. Cobb was the representative during inauguration ceremonies for E. Bruce Heilman at the University of Richmond on October 13. The inauguration of William Edward Everheart as president of Drury College in Springfield, Missouri, on October 17 was attended by Elmer E. Rodgers, and that of John Grove Barker as president of Marshall University in Huntington, West Virginia, on October 23, had Louis J. Gill in attendance.

On October 29, inauguration ceremonies were held for John Paul Schaefer as president of the University of Arizona, and for Edgar D. Draper as president of the Borough of Manhattan Community College. Representing ACRL were H. William Axford at the Tucson ceremony and Ellsworth G. Mason in New York. Also acting as an ACRL representative on October 29 was Irene W. Melson at the inauguration of Ward Pafford, president of West Georgia College, Carrollton, Georgia.

Inaugurations were held November 12 for Brigham Young University's president, Dallin Harris Oaks, Ralph D. Thompson attending, and on November 15 for John Edwin Johns of Stetson University, De Land, Florida. George E. Larsen represented ACRL at the latter.

Harold B. Schell attended the inauguration of Calvin Cleave Nolen as president of North Texas State University, Denton, Texas, on December 1.

■ ■

We've been doing it for 100 years... serving libraries

For a full century Stechert-Hafner, Inc. has been providing libraries with full subscription service for all foreign and domestic periodicals, continuations, and books in series.

Whether your library needs an obscure journal from somewhere in India or the latest issue of Life, we guarantee prompt delivery.

A Customer Service Staff is on hand to treat each customer individually.

Backed up by an Electronic Data Processing System, with its ever expanding bank of title information, our service is, in 1972, comprehensive enough to include all types of libraries.

To see how subscription service from Stechert-Hafner, Inc. can work for you, write for our brochure.

STECHERT-HAFNER, INC.

A CCM Company

Serving libraries since 1872

31 East 10th Street, New York, N. Y. 10003

Branch offices and agents
throughout the world

Telephone: 212-674-6210

SHA-075

Additional ACRL Nominating Committees

SUBJECT SPECIALISTS SECTION

Thomas H. Cahalan, Assistant Librarian for Acquisitions, Northeastern University, 106 Dodge St., Boston, MA 02115, Chairman

Robert Burgess, School of Library and Information Science, State University of New York, 1400 Washington Ave., Albany, NY 12203

Lawrence H. Chen, University of North Carolina, P.O. Box 1221, Chapel Hill, NC 27514

EDUCATION AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES SUBSECTION

Frances M. Pollard, Head, Department of Library Science, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, IL 61920, Chairman

Richard W. Luce, Assistant Librarian, Montana State University, Bozeman, MT 59715

Marjorie A. Zumstein, Head, Education and Psychology Libraries, Purdue University, Lafayette, IN 47907

See November CRL News for other Nominating Committees.

■ ■