

of the collection in 1984, after holding the position for 12 years. His career at SUNY-Buffalo began in 1967 as a cataloger. A native of Poland, Borodacz has published numerous works in the field of Poland. His contributions to the American Polish community have been recognized by the president of the Polish Republic (London), the Am-Pol Eagle, and by the Polish Arts Club of Buffalo. Prior to his tenure at SUNY-Buffalo, Borodacz held positions at the National Defense Library in Ottawa, Ontario; the Toronto University Library; Brandeis University; and Michigan State University.

HERBERT E. KLEIST, retired cataloger at the Harvard College Library, died January 9 in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Kleist retired as senior cataloger in 1968 after 33 years of service. His service at Harvard began in 1945 with his appointment as cataloger. Kleist attended the University of Denver, studied in Germany in 1935-36 as a Carl Schurz Fellow, and attended library school at the University of Illinois. His library service prior to Harvard included positions at the John Crerar Library, Chicago, and the Yale University Library. Kleist was also a noted collector of books, book jackets, and bindings. ■■

PUBLICATIONS

• Asian/Pacific American Librarians: A Cross-Cultural Perspective, edited by Lourdes Y. Collantes (30 pages, 1985), has been published by the Asian/Pacific American Librarians Association as the proceedings of their 1984 program in Dallas. Papers by Henry C. Chang, Jane Katayama, Minja Lee, and Bernard Kreissman are included. Copies may be ordered for $6 (payable to APALA) from Lourdes Y. Collantes, SUNY College at Old Westbury Library, Box 229, Old Westbury, NY 11568.

• A Bibliography of Latin American and Caribbean Bibliographies 1984-1985, by Lionel V. Loroña (128 pages, 1986), lists 613 monographic and serial sources arranged by topic. Most items were published in 1984-1985, but there are also sources of earlier vintage that were not included in previous editions of this bibliography. Copies are $8 (plus $2 postage and handling) from the SALALM Secretariat, Memorial Library, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706. Checks should be payable to the SALALM Secretariat. ISBN 0-917617-07-X.

• Collectors and Collections of Slavica at Stanford University, by Wojciech Zalewski (114 pages, 1985), is a history of the development of Slavic collections and academic programs at Stanford and in the United States. The volume describes the early relationships between the Stanford libraries and the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution and Peace, tracing the collection policy from the early 1920s through the 1980s. Appendix B is a comprehensive bibliography of Stanford Faculty Publications and Student Theses in the Russian and East European field. Copies may be ordered for $16.50 from the Publication Sales Office, Room 323B

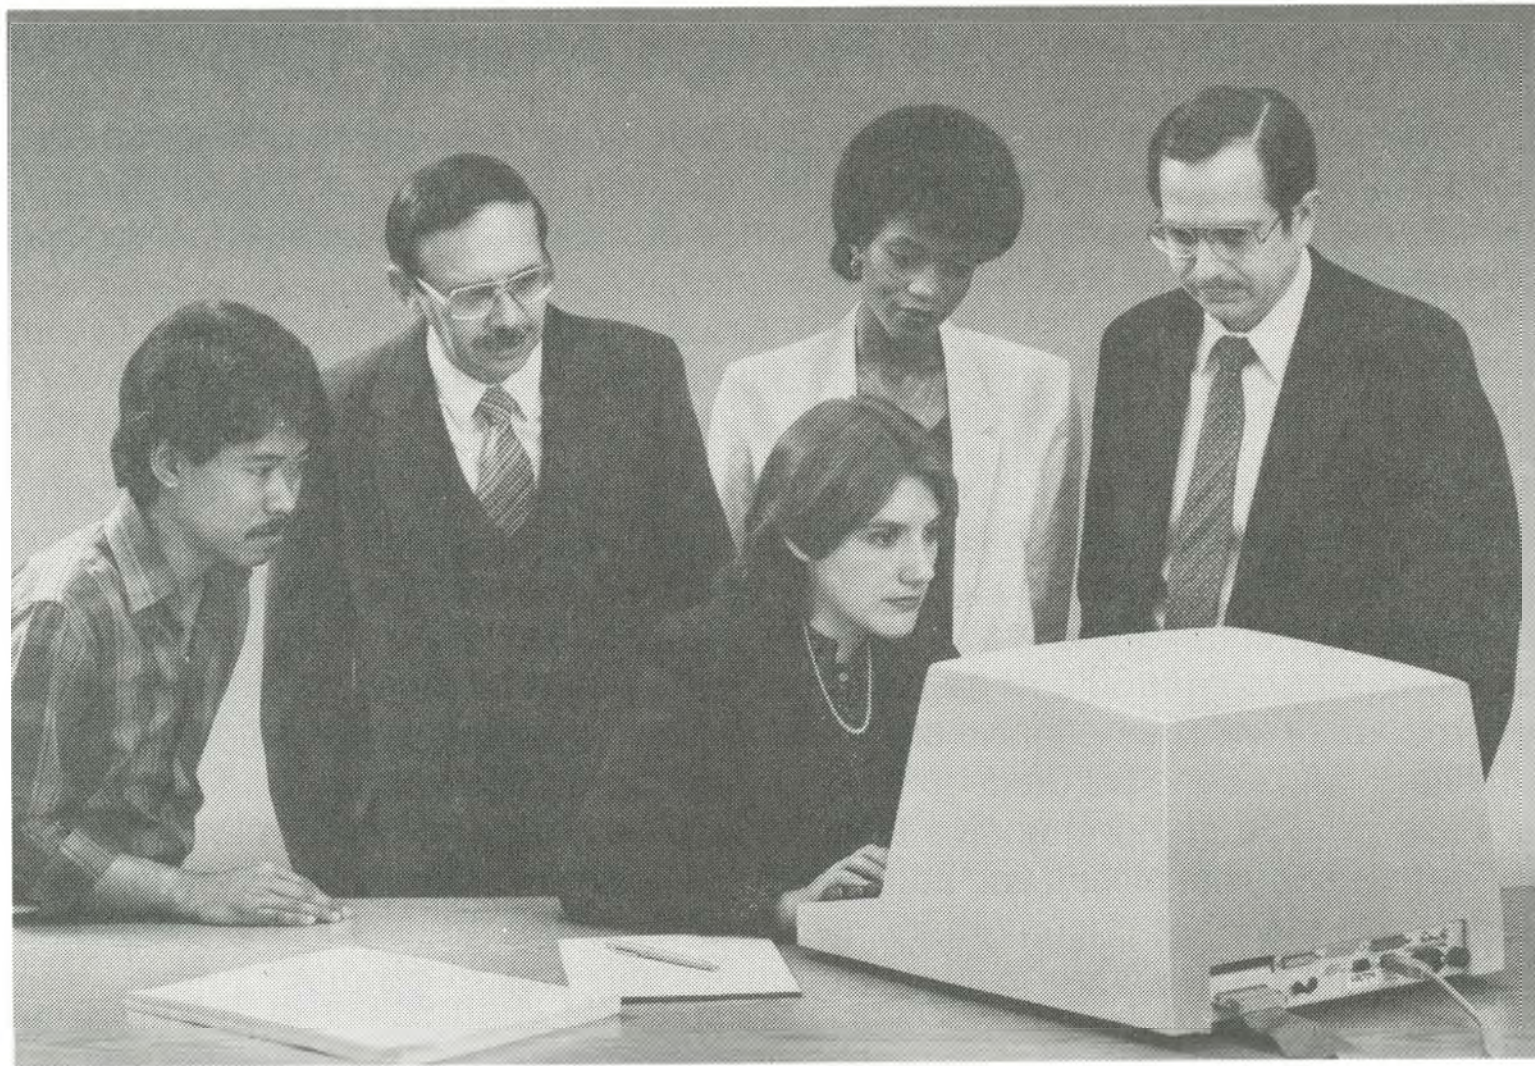

Green Library, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305. ISBN 0-911221-02-6.

• Directory of Vendors of Latin American Library Materials, by David Block and Howard L. Karno (46 pages, 2d ed., February 1986), includes information on 137 vendors. New in this edition is an Index of Geographic Coverages which highlights the best sources for books from particular countries. The book costs $10 (plus $2 postage and handling) and may be ordered from the SALALM Secretariat, Memorial Library, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706. ISBN 0-917617-09-6.

• Energies for Transition: Proceedings of the Fourth National Conference of the Association of College and Research Libraries, edited by Danuta A. Nitecki (266 pages, April 1986), contains 60 contributed papers from the Baltimore ACRL Conference in April 1986 covering such areas as automation and bibliographic control, bibliographic instruction, collection management, networking, public services, and research. Abstracts of the contributed papers will be found in the January 1986 issue of C&RL News. The proceedings are being sold for $22 to ACRL members, $30 to non-members, and may be ordered from ALA Publishing Services, Order Department, 50 East Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611. ISBN 0-8389-6976-3.

• Exhibits in ARL Libraries, SPEC Kit #120 (110 pages, January 1986), contains the results of a survey conducted to analyze procedures and policies developed specifically for research libraries, and to gather information on the staffing, administration, and local issues of mounting library exhibits. The kit contains 20 examples of exhibit policies, job descriptions from six institutions, six proposals to ex-

When people rely on you

you can rely on Social SciSearch[®]

When you're asked to perform a literature search in the social sciences, you can depend on Social SciSearch for coverage and for currency.

Social SciSearch provides full coverage of approximately 1500 journals from the worldwide social sciences literature, plus items relevant to the social sciences from an additional 3300 journals in the natural, physical, and biomedical sciences. And rapid journal processing and frequent updates ensure the currency that Social SciSearch users need.

Social SciSearch is available on DIALOG, BRS, and DIMDI. To find out how you can start searching Social SciSearch, call us toll-free: 800-523-1850, extension 1371. In Pennsylvania, call collect: 215-386-0100, extension 1371.

isi[®]

Institute for Scientific Information[®]

Customer Services Department, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104 U.S.A.
Telephone: (215)386-0100, ext. 1371, Cable: SCINFO, Telex: 84-5305

European Office: 132 High Street, Uxbridge, Middlesex UB8 1DP, United Kingdom
Telephone: 44-895-70016, Telex: 933693 UKISI

© 1986 ISI
12-4155

Confidential U.S. State Department Central Files
IRAN:
Internal Affairs and Foreign Affairs, 1945–1954

These papers are indispensable for the history of U.S.–Iranian relations and should be read by every person concerned with the history of this fateful era, which led up to the tyranny of Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi and American misinterpretations of the 1978–79 revolution.

—Dr. Bradford G. Martin
Middle East Studies Program
Indiana University

The publication of the U.S. State Department Central Files from 1945 to 1954 opens major research opportunities in Middle East studies. In particular, the years 1945 to 1954 represented for Iran a decade of tumultuous change, a period of intense struggle by both foreign and internal forces for control of that nation's future. Now, for the first time, researchers can have convenient access to over 60,000 pages of previously unpublished primary materials on the history of modern Iran. The definitive source of American diplomatic reporting on the political, social, military, and economic developments in Iran during this period, the State Department Central Files provide comprehensive and detailed coverage of Iran's internal and foreign affairs. The thousands of official and authoritative reports collected here will make this rich set of materials the standard documentary resource for future studies in the area. The State Department Central Files cover every facet of modern Iranian history.

Although scholars have used these files at the National Archives for several years, the files have never been published in any format—until now. Our convenient microfilm edition makes available for the first time over 60,000 pages of invaluable source materials: special reports on political and military affairs; studies and statistics on socioeconomic matters; interviews and minutes of meetings with government officials; court proceedings and other legal documents; full texts of important letters and cables sent and received by U.S. diplomatic personnel; voluminous reports and translations from journals and newspapers; and countless translations of high-level government documents, including speeches, memoranda, official reports, and transcripts of political meetings and assemblies. Published in cooperation with the National Archives and Records Administration, these records document the history of Iran in extensive detail.

Ordering Information _____

Confidential U.S. State Department Central Files.

Iran: Internal Affairs and Foreign Affairs, 1945–1949.

35mm microfilm (18 reels) with printed guide. Price: $1,300. Available now.

Iran: Internal Affairs and Foreign Affairs, 1950–1954.

35mm microfilm (44 reels) with printed guide. Price: $2,900. Available now.

Source note: This collection has been microfilmed by University Publications of America from the original documents in the National Archives, Washington, D.C. The documents are from Record Group 59, General Records of the Department of State: Decimal File 891 (Internal Affairs of Iran), Decimal File 791 (Foreign Affairs of Iran), and Decimal File 711.91 (Relations between Iran and the U.S.) for the years 1945–1949; Decimal Files 788, 888, and 988 (Internal Affairs of Iran), Decimal File 688 (Foreign Affairs of Iran), and Decimal File 611.88 (Relations between Iran and the U.S.) for the years 1950–1954. All of the original documents have been microfilmed; only duplicate and triplicate copies have been excluded.

Kindly direct all orders and inquiries to:

UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS OF AMERICA
Dept. A-CRLN486 • 44 North Market Street • Frederick, MD 21701
Call Toll Free 1-800-692-6300

hibit, three procedures checklists, four exhibit schedules, five loan agreements, and five illustrations of publicity materials. Individual SPEC kits cost $20, prepayment required. Send check payable to ARL Office of Management Studies to: SPEC, ARL/OMS, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

• A Guide to the Modern Literary Manuscripts Collection of the Washington University Libraries (115 pages, December 1985) represents the culmination of a two-year acquisition and cataloging project funded under HEA Title II-C. The guide is intended both as a general overview and a detailed index to the extensive modern literary manuscript holdings at Washington University. Some of the authors included are Samuel Beckett, Anthony Burgess, James Dickey, and Marianne Moore. Copies may be requested from Timothy D. Murray, Curator of Manuscripts, Washington University, Campus Box 1061, St. Louis, MO 63130.

• Guide to the Publications of Interstate Agencies and Authorities, by Jack Sulzer and Roberta Palen (48 pages, February 1986), provides a list of the principal publications, their availability, and the principal depositories in which they may be found for 63 interstate agencies. The types of agency include navigation and port authorities, parks and recreation, area planning and development, transportation, water pollution control, and water resources. The name of a staff contact is provided for each agency. The booklet costs $7.95 and is available from ALA Publishing Services, Order Department, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611. ISBN 0-8389-0444-0.

• The Holocaust: An Annotated Bibliography, by Harry James Cargas (184 pages, 2d ed., January 1986), encompasses all aspects of Holocaust scholarship from the rise of Nazism to studies of survivors' offspring, and is designed both as a collection development tool and a researcher's guide. Oral histories, photo collections and films are included in addition to printed materials. Only books available in English from U.S. publishers are listed. Copies are $27.50 from ALA Publishing, Order Department, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611. ISBN 0-8389-0433-5.

• The new Library Binding Institute Standard for Library Binding (8th edition, February 1986) covers all aspects of library binding including methods of leaf attachment, mending procedures, and collation policy. All terms and procedures are clearly defined and explained. Copies are available for $5 from the Library Binding Institute, 150 Allens Creek Road, Rochester, NY 14618; (716) 461-4380.

• A series of Library Systems Evaluation Guides (8 vols. planned) may help in the evaluation and selection of automated library systems, either for individual applications or for a fully integrated system. Volumes 1-7 (serials control, circulation control, public service, acquisitions, management services, interlibrary loan, and cataloging) are available now; an eighth volume on system integration will be published soon. The cataloging volume is arranged into sections on functional requirements for automated cataloging systems, methodology for systems evaluation, a huge table of functions and features of an automated cataloging system, a checklist of data elements required, data element definitions, and an inventory of available cataloging systems. Single volumes in the series are $59.50 prepaid ($64.50 invoiced); three or more volumes are $54.50 prepaid ($57.00 invoiced); and the entire set costs $395 prepaid ($410 invoiced). Order from James E. Rush Associates, Inc., 2223 Carriage Road, Powell, OH 43065-9703. ISBN 0-912803-00-2 (series).

• National Avocational Organizations, edited by Regina Germain (6th annual edition, 1986), lists over 2,500 hobby, sport, literary, patriotic, and cultural organizations with national memberships. This year's directory adds over 300 civic and cultural organizations and computer user groups. Organizations range from the A-Four Hundred Group (owners of the 1931 Ford Model A convertible sedan) to the Zugzwang! Postal Chess Association. Subject, geographic, and budget indexes provide access. Copies are $30 from Columbia Books, 1350 New York Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20008. ISBN 0-910416-58-3.

• A new Overview of Endowment Programs (31 pages, January 1986) is available from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Brief descriptions of funding opportunities, 42 separate programs in all, are given with application deadlines and a telephone directory for each program. A revision is planned for July 1986. Free copies may be requested from NEH Overview, Room 409, National

New CLIP Note from ACRL

Librarians considering expanding or refining their special collections will want to order Special Collections in College Libraries, the latest addition to the CLIP Notes series (College Library Information Packet) published by ACRL. CLIP Note #6 contains documents from other libraries showing how they have formulated policies, sought support, or undertaken new projects. Publicity, financial support, archives, preservation, and use policies are some of the topics covered.

Special Collections in College Libraries was compiled by Christine Erdmann, public services librarian at Beloit College. Copies may be ordered from ALA Publishing Services, Order Department, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2795. This 97-page book costs $18 ($15 for ACRL members); ALA members receive a 10% discount off the list price. ISBN 0-8389-7004-4.

Endowment for the Humanities, 1100 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20506; (202) 786-0438.

• Sci-Tech Libraries In Museums and Aquariums, edited by Ellis Mount (204 pages, November 1985), focuses on some outstanding museum and aquarium libraries. Contributors explain in detail the history and function of their facilities, their collections and user services, cataloging and classification procedures, and special programs. Included are the American Museum of Natural History Library, the Field Museum of Natural History Library, the Harvard Museum of Comparative Zoology Library, the National Air and Space Museum Library, and the Deutsches Museum Library in Munich, Germany. Copies are $29.95 from Harworth Press. ISBN 0-86656-484-5. ■■

CALENDAR

April

17-18—Kentucky libraries: Joint meeting of the Academic Library and Special Library sections of the Kentucky Library Association, Kentucky State University, Frankfort. Theme: "Strategies for Growth." Contact: Stan Campbell, Centre College, Danville, KY 40422; (606) 236-5211.

18—Automation: "Library Automation—Integrate or Interface," a joint program of the Northern California Technical Processes Group (NCTPG) and the California Library Association's Technical Services Chapter, Northern Region (CLA/TSC), at the Foothill College Theatre, 12345 El Monte Rd., Los Altos Hills, California. Fee: $20 (includes box lunch and NCTPG membership). Contact: Kathleen Fox, San Jose City College Library, 2100 Moorepark Ave., San Jose, CA 95128; (408) 298-2181.

Help wanted for LIRT booth

The Membership/Public Relations Committee of ALA's Library Instruction Round Table will again have an exhibit booth at Annual Conference in New York. The booth will display library instruction materials and distribute information about LIRT activities.

LIRT needs volunteers to staff the booth during the following time slots: 9:00-11:00 a.m., 11:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m., 1:00-3:00 p.m., and 3:00-5:00 p.m., each day from Saturday, June 28, through Tuesday, July 1. Indicate your willingness and time preferences by contacting, before May 15, Roberta Henderson, Olson Library, Northern Michigan University, Marquette, MI 49855; (906) 227-2117.

20-25—Educational software: 24th Annual Conference of the Association for Educational Data Systems, "Excellence in Educational Computing," at the Marriott Hotel, New Orleans, Louisiana. Hosted by the Mid-South Association for Educational Data Systems. Fee: $155 (member), $210 (non-member). Contact: AEDS-86, P.O. Box 5689, Columbus, GA 31906-5689.

25-26—Information access: "Access to IGO Information—Documents, Publications, and Information Systems of International Organizations," a seminar at the University of Toronto Faculty of Library and Information Science. Fee: $125; Friday only: $90; Saturday only: $45. Contact: Marcia Chen or L.G. Dennis, Office of Continuing Education, Faculty of Library and Information Science, University of Toronto, 140 St. George St., Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A1.

26-27—Archives: Spring Meeting of New England Archivists at Durham, New Hampshire, following "New England Archives Week," April 21-27. Contact: Peg Giguere-Davis, Connecticut State Library, 231 Capitol Ave., Hartford, CT 06115; (203) 566-3690; or Nancy Fappiano, Yale University, (203) 436-0908.

May

1—Communication: "Meetings and Group Dynamics—A Workshop in Effective Communication," sponsored by the Academic Library Association of Ohio, at the OHIONET Building, Columbus. Attendance limited to 35 participants. Fee: $35. Registration deadline: April 18. Contact: Dean Riggs, Carlson Library, University of Toledo, Toledo, OH 43606; (419) 537-2321.

1-2—Preservation: "Preservation Options for