

people with jobs trim their spending on outside pleasures. But suppliers of in-home activities prosper. The creator of the game Monopoly became a millionaire during the Depression. Perhaps videotex companies will also benefit from a recession.—Information courtesy of Online, Inc., Weston, Connecticut. ■■

Publications

NOTICES

• The ALA Survey of Librarian Salaries (108 pages, July 1982) presents the findings of a national mail survey of 1,400 libraries conducted in January, 1982, by the ALA Offices for Research and for Library Personnel Resources with assistance from the University of Illinois Library Research Center. The report features 39 tables including, for each of 13 positions, a table of scheduled salary ranges and a table of salaries actually paid to academic or public librarians in four geographic regions of the U.S. Copies are available for $40 from the American Library Association, Order Department, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611.

• Approval Plans in ARL Libraries (109 pages, April 1982), SPEC Kit #83, reports on a survey which requested specific data on the number and types of approval plans in major research libraries and the current justifications for using or not using plans. The kit includes 22 documents responding to the survey, questions and criteria for evaluating vendors, statistics, general comments, and guidelines. SPEC kits are available by subscription from the Systems and Procedures Exchange Center, OMS/ARL, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036. Individual kits may be purchased for $15 (prepayment requested) with checks made payable to the ARL Office of Management Studies. Library members of ARL receive kits for $7.50.

• The University of Texas Collection Development Policy (2d edition, 1982) is now available from UT-Austin. Organized by subject of collecting interest, the guide contains collection guidelines that specify the language of the collection, chronological guidelines, treatment of subject, types of materials to be collected, and date of publication. The policy may be ordered for $15 from Publications, The General Libraries, The University of Texas at Austin, P.O. Box P, Austin, TX 78712.

• Cooperative Collection Development in Multitype Library Networks (131 pages, 1982) outlines the essential elements of cooperative collection development and includes guidelines, procedures, and examples of successful projects. This report is the result of a statewide meeting of Missouri librarians who convened to draft guidelines for the new Missouri Library Network. Copies are available for $10 to Association members, $15 to non-members, from the Metropolitan Washington Library Council, 1875 Eye Street, N.W., Suite 200, Washington, DC 20006. Checks should be made payable to MWCOG; a $5 fee is charged for billing.

• Directory of Library Reprographic Services, compiled by Joseph Z. Nitecki (540 pages, 8th edition, 1982), has been published by Meckler Publishing. Sponsored by the Reproduction of Library Materials Section of ALA's Resources and Technical Services Division, the guide reprints survey forms returned by over 500 photoduplication departments in both the United States and some foreign countries. Copies are available for $24.95 from Meckler Publishing, 520 Riverside Avenue, Westport, CT 06880.

• Directory of Michigan Academic Libraries 1981-1982, edited by Joy Pastucha (31 pages, 3d edition, 1982) may be purchased for $3 from the Michigan Library Association, 226 W. Washtenaw, Lansing, MI 48933.

• Directory of Special Libraries and Collections in Florida (300 pages, 1st edition, 1982) has been published by the Florida Chapter of the Special Libraries Association and includes data on more than 500 collections and libraries. Copies are available ($12 for SLA members, $15 for non-members) from Linda Wyman, Corporate Library, REL, Inc., 3800 S. Congress Ave., Boynton Beach, FL 33435.

• Document Delivery Systems in ARL Libraries (101 pages, March 1982), SPEC Kit #82, has been published by the Association of Research Libraries. Both internal and external delivery are covered in this survey report, which contains 26 documents illustrating certain aspects of these systems, including telefacsimile transmission and electronic mail. SPEC kits are available by subscription from the Systems and Procedures Exchange Center, OMS/ARL, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036. Individual kits may be purchased for $15 (prepayment required) with checks made payable to the ARL Office of Management Studies. Library members of ARL receive kits for $7.50.

• Finding a Position: Strategies for Library Science Graduates, by Robert Delzell (26 pages, May 1982), details the art of writing resumes for librarian positions, how to make the most of a cover letter, common mistakes to be avoided, and recent trends in the library employment market. The manual is number 153 in the Occasional Pa- pers series published by the University of Illinois Graduate School of Library and Information Science. Copies are available for $3 each, prepaid, from GSLIS Publications Office, 249 Armory Building, 505 E. Armory Street, Champaign, IL 61820.

• Harvard's Distributable Union Catalog on microfiche is now available in its second edition. The catalog includes author, title, and subject entries for computerized cataloging produced by various Harvard libraries since July 1, 1977, as well as author and title entries for works on order but not yet received and for works received but not yet cataloged. The second edition consists of 411 microfiche (reduction ratio 48:1) and is available to non-Harvard libraries and interested individuals for $95 from Laura Margolis, University Library, Wadsworth House, Harvard University, Cambridge, MA 02138.

• LEX Locator (12 pages, 1982) has been published by METRO (New York Metropolitan Reference and Research Library Agency) as its Miscellaneous Publication No. 25. This source includes locations for legal materials in 33 libraries in New York and New Jersey. Copies may be obtained for $5 ($10 if an invoice is required) from METRO, 33 W. 42d Street, New York, NY 10036.

• Scholars' Access to Information: Public Responsibility/Private Initiative is an edited transcription of the proceedings of the 99th Membership Meeting of the Association of Research Libraries, held October 30, 1981, in Washington, D.C. Copies are available (prepaid only) for $12.50 (or $7.50 to ARL library members) from the Association of Research Libraries, 1527 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

• Teacher and Administrator Evaluation, compiled by Marita Moll (107 pages, December 1981), has been published as number 74 in the Bibliographies in Education series by the Canadian Teachers' Federation. The sources are primarily Canadian and cover the period from 1975-1981. Copies may be ordered from the Canadian Teachers' Federation, 110 Argyle Ave., Ottawa, Ontario, K2P 1B4.

• This Country of Louisiana, compiled by Florence M. Jumonville (14 pages, 1982), is a tricentennial bibliography of selected material about Robert Cavelier, Sieur de La Salle (1643-1687) in The Historic New Orleans Collection. This source listing is the first in a series of bibliographies describing this special collection. The pamphlet is available free from The Historic New Orleans Collection, Research Library, 533 Royal Street, New Orleans, LA 70130.

• Training of Egyptian Information Specialists: A Multifaceted System Approach, by Bahaa El-Hadidy (222 pages, January 1982), describes a project that provided for the training over a two-year period of a core group of 15

- ✓ Firm order services
- ✓ Rush/Reserve Department
- ✓ University Press Division
- ✓ Comprehensive & Customized Approval Programs
- ✓ Continuation/Standing Order Services

Ballen

Booksellers International, Inc.
66 Austin Boulevard, Commack, New York 11725
Toll-free WATS line: (800) 645-5237

Regional offices: Atlanta, GA Palo Alto, CA

Egyptian information specialists in the technical skills required for the development of national information services and the implementation of a national information system in Egypt. The Project was supported by the U.S. Agency for International Development. Copies are available for free while the supply lasts from Bahaa El-Hadidy, School of Library and Information Science, Catholic University of America, Washington, DC, 20064.

• Twenty-five Fine Books: Twenty-five Years of Collecting at the University of Waterloo, compiled by Susan Bellingham (1982), outlines the history of building the university library's rare and special book collections and includes photographs and descriptions of 25 of the collection's most notable books. Copies may be ordered for $10 from Jorn Jorgensen, Library Business Administrator, Dana Porter Arts Library, University of Waterloo, Waterloo, Ontario, Canada N2L 3G1.

• United States Federal Document Holdings in the Linda Hall Library, 1982, provides bibliographic information for some 6,700 titles in the library's collection. Copies may be purchased for $12 from the Linda Hall Library, Documents Division, 5109 Cherry Street, Kansas City, MO 64110. ■■

Calendar

August

8-13—Book Trade: "The Out-of-Print and Antiquarian Book Market," a seminar/workshop sponsored by the University of Denver Graduate School of Librarianship and Information Management. Fee: $250. Credit: 3.0 CEU. Contact: University of Denver GSLIM, Denver, CO 80208; (303) 753-2557.

September

20-22—Information Systems: An informative course, prepared by the American Management Association, for directors of data processing, MIS, information systems, managers of systems, and information systems user managers. Fee: $625 for AMA members, $720 for non-members. Credit: 2.2 CEU. Held in New York. Contact: American Management Association, 135 West 50th Street, New York, NY 10020; (212) 246-0800.

22-24—Conservation: A workshop sponsored by the Society of American Archivists at the Kentucky Department for Libraries and Archives, Frankfort. Limited enrollment; the $50 tuition will cover the cost of a conservation supply kit. Contact: Basic Archival Conservation Program, Society of American Archivists, 330 South Wells Street, Chicago, IL 60606; (312) 922-0140.

October

9-11—Mental Health: Annual meeting, Association of Mental Health Librarians, an affiliate of the Institute on Hospital and Community Psychiatry, American Psychiatric Association, at the Galt House, Louisville, Kentucky. Theme: Update '82—State of the Art, Science and Profession. Contact: Maggie Demchuk, Medical Library, Portsmouth Psychiatric Center, 301 Fort Lane, Portsmouth, VA 23704; (804) 393-0061, ext.303.

11-14—Automation: "Increasing Productivity through Library Automation," the Essen Symposium 1982, Essen, West Germany. Experts from Europe and the United States will give presentations supported by terminal dialogues. The official language of the meeting is English. Contact: Essen University Library, Universitätsstrasse 9, 4300 Essen 1, West Germany.

11-14—Information Systems: The Information Management Exposition and Conference, INFO 82, at the New York Coliseum, New York City. Contact: Clapp & Poliak, Inc., 245 Park Avenue, New York, NY 10167.

16-18—Conservation: A workshop sponsored by the Society of American Archivists at Boston prior to the SAA annual meeting. See the September 22-24 entry for further information.

18-20—Information Systems: An American Management Association course, held in New Orleans. See the September 20-22 entry for further information.

22-24—Humanities: American Association for the Advancement of the Humanities, annual meeting, Capital Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C. Session topics include: The Preservation of Resources, The Ownership of Information and the Future of Research, and Censorship. Contact: AAAH Annual Meeting, 918 16th Street, N.W., Suite 601, Washington, DC 20006; (202) 293-5800.

November

3-6—Arizona: Arizona State Library Association, Southwestern Library Association, and Arizona Educational Media Association concurrent conference. The theme is "Unity out of Diversity: A Southwestern Challenge," held at the Civic Plaza/Hyatt Regency Hotel, Phoenix. Contact: Karen Whitney, 8247 West Vale Drive, Phoenix, AZ 85033.

8-9—Rhode Island: Rhode Island Library Association annual conference, Sheraton-Islander Inn, Goat Island, Newport, Rhode Island. Fee: $12