

Ernie B. Ingles, associate vice-president of learning systems at the University of Alberta (UA), has been named information innovator of the Year by the Canadian Information Productivity Awards (CIPA), an annual awards program established in 1992 to honor outstanding management achievement in information technology. Ingles was chosen for directing technological innovations that are creating a new model for the dissemination of information by libraries and research and educational institutions. He oversaw the creation of a system for interlibrary loan at UA that automates the ordering and delivery of documents using the World Wide Web. Ingles was also recently inducted into the CIPA Hall of Fame.

Anne R. Kenney, associate director of the Department of Preservation and Conservation at Cornell University, was appointed to the National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC). She was appointed by the Society of American Archivists, for which she served as president. Kenney has participated in the NHPRC Historical Editing Institute and has reviewed NHPRC grant applications.

Susan Phillips, library director at the Ohio University Lancaster Regional Campus Library, has been presented with the Academic Library Association of Ohio's (ALAO) Distinguished Service Award, which is presented to a long-time ALAO member who has promoted academic libraries and librarianship statewide and/or provided leadership in promotion of ALAO. Phillips played a leading role in getting academic libraries involved in library advocacy. She has served as president of ALAO, and on the executive board in the capacities of public relations chair, ACRL representative, and on the ALAO Government Relations Team. She

Susan Phillips

People in the News

Pam Spiegel

has also served as chair of the ACRL Chapters Council.

Martin Runkle, director of the University of Chicago Library, has been elected chair of the Research Libraries Group (RLG) Board of Directors. James Michalko, RLG president, said of Runkle, "[he] has developed a real understanding of the potential and complexity of the RLG agenda. . . . I look forward to working with [him] and expect to accomplish RLG's strategic goals during his tenure." Other new members of the board are: Reg Carr, Bodley's librarian at the University of Oxford; Nancy M. Cline, Roy E. Larsen librarian of Harvard College; Lila J. Goff, assistant director for library and archives at the Minnesota Historical Society; Paul LeClerc, president and CEO of the New York Public Library; and Elaine F. Sloan, vice-president for information services and university librarian at Columbia University.

Appointments

Jerry Dean Campbell, university librarian and dean of University Libraries at the University of Southern California (USC) since 1996, has been named to the newly created post of chief information officer at USC. In his new position, Campbell will work to create a consolidated managerial environment for Administrative Information Systems, University Computing Services, University Telecommunications, University Libraries, and other information providers and facilitators on campus. Before joining USC, Campbell served from 1985 to 1996 as vice-provost for library affairs, university librarian, and professor of the practice of theological bibliography at Duke University.

Jerry Dean Campbell

Concurrently, from 1989 to 1994, he served as Duke's vice-provost for computing.

Ruth H. Miller has been appointed director of the David L. Rice Library and Media Services at the University of Southern Indiana. Miller has spent the last five years as a librarian at Hong Kong University of Science and Technology. Before that she served as head of the Collection Development Department at Indiana State University, in various library positions at the University of Evansville, and as coordinator of collection development and access at the Hong Kong Library. She is coeditor of Collection Management for the 21st Century (Greenwood, 1996).

Ruth H. Miller

Colleen Bell is now library instruction coordinator at the University of Oregon, Eugene.

Jeffrey S. Bullington has been appointed social sciences librarian at Trinity University in San Antonio.

Doralyn Edwards has been named curriculum specialist and data librarian at Rice University, Houston.

Marie Erdman has joined the library at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville as automation librarian.

James L. Foor joined Shepherd College in West Virginia as reference librarian and coordinator of bibliographic instruction.

Subash Gandhi has been named public service/user education librarian (sciences) at Queens College, New York.

Patrick Hall is now instructional services coordinator at the University Libraries of Notre Dame.

Jeff Holland has joined Portland State University as serials cataloger.

Graham Howard is now public service/user education librarian (social sciences) at Queens College, New York.

Lydia Ievins has been named systems librarian in the Office for Information Systems at Harvard University.

---

Ed. note: To ensure that your personnel news is considered for publication, write to Pam Spiegel, Production Editor, C&RL News, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611-2795; e-mail: pspiegel@ala.org.

Cynthia Jahns has been appointed head of government publications and maps at the University of California, Santa Cruz.

Sigrid Kelsey is now reference librarian at Whitman College in Walla Walla, Washington.

Scott Lapinski has been appointed systems librarian at Amherst College in Massachusetts.

Elizabeth McKeigue is now assistant head of the Access Services Department at Harvard University's Widener Library.

Anne McMahon has been named university archivist at Santa Clara University.

Michelle Manke is now reference and information services librarian at St. Norbert College in De Pere, Wisconsin.

Matthew Mattingly has been appointed five college multimedia instructional technology specialist at Amherst College in Massachusetts.

Marilyn Naito has been appointed program coordinator for Florida State University's distance education, ITV delivered, library and information studies master's degree program.

David Orenstein has been named coordinator of access services at Queens College, New York.

Pamela Pavliscak is now humanities and information technology librarian at Rice University, Houston.

Susan Riehl has joined the library at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville as cataloging coordinator.

Elizabeth Scott has been appointed serials catalog librarian at the University of Oregon, Eugene.

Advertiser index

Academic Press	22
American Inst. of Physics	41
Archival Products	4
Baker & Taylor	18
Bernan	40
Brodart	26
CISTI	13
Dictionary of Art	cover 4
Dorling Kindersley	9
EBSCO	cover 2
Haworth Press	21
ISI	32
OCLC	29
Primary Source Media	39
Roper Ctr./Public Opinion	1
SIRSI	cover 3
Sociological Abstracts	I-12
Softline	35
Univ. of Illinois-Urbana	12
H.W. Wilson	42
WLN	43

Remembering Hugh C. Atkinson (1934–1986)

Hugh Craig Atkinson, director of the University of Illinois Libraries, Urbana-Champaign, died October 24 at age 52.

Atkinson, who had been director for 10 years, presided over the computerization of the library's card catalog, the construction of the $6.7 million sixth stack addition, and, most recently, the acquisition of the library's seven-millionth volume.

Before moving to Illinois in 1976, Atkinson was director of libraries at Ohio State University (1971–76), having served since 1967 as assistant director for public services. Born in Chicago, Atkinson attended St. Benedict's College, where he studied accounting and worked for Lawrence Scudder and Co. as a junior accountant (1951–56). He studied English at the University of Chicago and in 1959 received his MLS from Chicago's Graduate Library School, at the same time working as an assistant in rare books at the university library.

Atkinson served as reader services librarian at Pennsylvania Military College (1958–61); head of reference (1961–64); acting assistant director of health sciences libraries (1966–67); and assistant director of libraries for technical services (1964–67) at the State University of New York at Buffalo. He was a member of the board of directors of the Association of Research Libraries and OCLC, a member of the editorial board for the Journal of Library Administration, and was active in other professional library organizations.

Hugh C. Atkinson

Among his recent publications were "Automation in Austerity" (a chapter in the 1984 book Austerity Management in Academic Libraries), "Centralized Library Collections: A Brief for the Other Side" in the Journal of Academic Librarianship, and several columns in the Library Journal's series on technology, people, and change.

(Reprinted from C&RL News, December 1986.)

Anthony Semanik is now director of media services at Wayne State University.

Lydia Shahid has been named head of the Monograph Section in the Catalog Department at the University of California, Irvine.

Laura Sill is now head of the Serials Department at the University Libraries of Notre Dame.

Deaths

Suzanne L. Katz, interlibrary loan librarian at Queens College from 1987 to 1992, died in a plane crash on November 1 at the age of 38. She was living in Hawaii and serving as corporate librarian at Rockwell International in Maui.

Paul Evan Peters, founding director of the Coalition for Networked Information (CNI), died on November 18 while walking with his wife on a beach in Florida. He was 48. Peters founded CNI and served as its head since March 1990. Before that he served as systems coordinator at the New York Public Library from 1987 to 1989; assistant university librarian for systems at Columbia University; and as a principal in a variety of research and development projects at the University of Pittsburgh. A former member of the ALA Council, Peters was also former president of ALA's Library and Information Technology Association, and former chair of the National Information Standards Organization (NISO). CNI Steering Committee chair Richard West said, "We do not yet comprehend how much Paul will be missed. His leadership, insight, and quiet competence have had an impact on all who have benefited from the CNI program." ■

Paul Evan Peters

FROM THE earliest illuminated copies of the 1462 Bible, through last night's broadcast news, we are your first source for primary sources on microform, CD-ROM and, now, online. From our renowned Eighteenth Century, Incunabula and Goldsmiths'-Kress collections, to our elegant and detailed CD-ROM series Major Authors and American Journey, each Primary Source Media title and collection is a deep, rich source of knowledge, understanding and insight. For 30 years researchers and scholars have been calling on us to answer their need to know. Call 800.444.0799 for a complete collection catalog.

PRIMARY SOURCE
Media

Everything old is new again.

12 Lunar Drive
Woodbridge, CT 06525
1.800.444.0799
sales@psmedia.com

The essence of the Enlightenment in England ... The printing revolution in Europe, 1455-1500 ... Treatises on the manufacturing processes of such products as linen, perfume and silk cloth ... Photos and images of Virginia Woolf's manuscripts, sketches and paintings ... A rich mosaic of primary sources that illustrate our shared history.

PRIMARY SOURCE MEDIA
COLLECTIONS

EXPLORE

YOUR CURRICULA OPTIONS WITH KCDL

Looking for academic standards, classroom techniques, educational strategies, evaluation methods, or lesson plans? Discover examples of current practice found in 300 curricula developed by school districts and individual schools, regional consortia, states, provinces, and professional associations in the United States, Canada, and other countries. Locate the information you need easily and precisely using the new annotated index on CD-ROM.

▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼ ▼
See our new KCDL
annotated index on CD-ROM at the Association of College and Research
Libraries Annual Meeting – booth 217
▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲ ▲

"The index words are very complete permitting one to search even the most obscure concepts, processes, and terms. I especially like being able to combine the various categories in a search to meet specific needs."

Gary Lare
Head, Curriculum Resources Center and
Assistant Professor of Education
University of Cincinnati

KCDL

Kraus Curriculum Development Library

Curricula Resources and Services

<http://www.bernan.com/~kcdl>
kcdl@bernan.com
800.416.4374