Retirements

Dorothy Christiansen, head of the M. E. Grenander Department of Special Collection and Archives at the University at Albany, SUNY, has retired after more than 28 years of service to the university libraries. During her tenure, she served in a variety of administrative positions focusing on collection development, reference services, budget, personnel, public relations, fundraising, and special collections and archives. She also served as editor of "Library Update" (the Libraries' newsletter) and liaison/secretary to the Friends of the Libraries from 1991 to 2000. Christiansen has served on a number of regional and national organizations, including the Capital District Library Council (28 years), where she served on the Board of Trustees for 14 years (chaired the Board for six years) and served on a variety of committees. As a member of ALA, she most recently served on several LAMA committees.

Mary Dolven has retired after 26 years as director of library services at Diablo Valley College in Pleasant Hill, California. ■

Correction

In the December 2002 issue of C&RL News, the biographical sketch for vice-president/president-elect candidate John Popko incorrectly stated (page 36) that he was a member of the Budget and Finance committee of LAMA's Library and Organization Management section (1988-92). He was actually a member of that section's Comparative Library Organization Committee. It was also incorrectly stated (page 37) that Popko is a current member of the OCLC Users Council, rather than a past member who sat on the council for seven years. The editors regret the errors.
