In 1990, Didier was awarded the Association for Educational Communications and Technology Distinguished Service Award.

Her publications include Distance Learning Comes of Age, foreword to The Oryx Guide to Distance Learning, 1997; New Roles for a New Century: Changing the Way We Do Business, (Media Spectrum, 1997); and A Synergistic Approach to Defining a New Information Environment, (Academic Computing, 1990).

Didier earned her B.A., A.M.L.S., and Ph.D. at the University of Michigan.

Helen H. Spalding has been associate director of Libraries at the University of Missouri, Kansas City, since 1985. She was head of Technical Services at the University of Missouri, Kansas City (1979–85), and head of both Serials Records and Serials Cataloging at Iowa State University (1974–79).

Spalding has been an active member of ACRL, and is currently ACRL Division Councilor and a member of the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee (1997–2001). She was chair of the Budget and Finance Committee (1994–96), the Colleagues Committee (1992–93), and the Appointments Committee (1996–97). She was a member of the Seventh National Conference Contributed Papers Subcommittee (1993–95) and is a member of the Tenth National Conference Volunteer Committee (2000–01).

Her service to ALA includes ALA Council (1997–2001) and Budget Analysis on Review Committee [BARC] (1998–2002). She was Library Education Assembly Representative (1985–87), a member of the Development Office Advisory Committee's Fund Raising Task Force (1992–93), and a member of the Search Committee for CHOICE Editor/Publisher (1994–95). She has served on several committees in LAMA and LITA.

Spalding has also been active at the state and regional level, serving the Missouri Library Association as Membership Committee chair (1981–82), Constitution and Bylaws Committee chair (1984–85), and Budget and Finance Committee member (1985–86). She was a member of the Missouri Library Network Corporation's Ad Hoc Pricing Committee (1983).

Spalding's other organizational affiliations include the OCLC ad hoc Pricing Committee (1982–83). She was vice-president/Finance Committee chair and a member of the Executive Committee of the OCLC Users Council (1982–83). She has served on the Boards of Editors of Journal of Academic Librarianship (1986–99) and Portal: Libraries and the Academy (1999–present).

Spalding has been a member of Phi Beta Kappa since 1972. In 1989 she was a UCLA Senior Fellow.

Her publications include "The Developing Reference Librarian: An Administrative Perspective," (Reference Librarian, 1990); "Recent Developments in Library Technical Services and the Implications for Access to Scholarly Information," (Issues in Access to Scholarly Information, 1985), and "A Computer-Produced Serials Book Catalog with Automatically Generated Indexes," (Library Resources & Technical Services, 1980).
