

Classified Advertising

Deadlines: Orders for regular classified advertisements must reach the ACRL office on or before the second of the month preceding publication of the issue (e.g., September 2 for the October issue). Late job listings will be accepted on a space-available basis after the ninth of the month.

Contact: Riley Tate, Administrative Secretary, ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611; (312) 944-6780.

Rates: Classified advertisements are $2.25 per line for ACRL members, $2.80 for others. Late job notices are $7.00 per line for members, $8.50 per line for others. Organizations submitting ads will be charged according to their membership status.

Telephone: Telephone orders for classified advertising, while not encouraged because of the increased risk of copy error and additional staff time, will be accepted. A confirming order should be mailed to ACRL as soon as possible following the call, along with a typewritten copy to be used in proofreading. There is an additional charge of $10 for ads taken by phone, except late job notices.

Guidelines: For ads which list an application deadline, that date must be no sooner than the last day of the month in which the notice appears (e.g., October 31 for the October issue). All job announcements must include a salary figure. Job announcements will be edited to exclude discriminatory references. Applicants should be aware that the terms faculty rank and status vary in meaning among institutions.

Pseudonyms and Nicknames Dictionary

1st edition. Edited by Jennifer Mossman. 627pp. Bibliography.
Cross References. ISBN 0-8103-0549-6. 1980. $55.00. (SO)

Pseudonyms, nicknames, stage names, aliases, epithets, cognomens, sobriquets, and other types of assumed names often figure prominently in questions posed by library patrons. Gale's new Pseudonyms and Nicknames Dictionary is the reference book to consult first for answers to these inquiries.

COVERS ALL FIELDS... Not surprisingly, authors, entertainers, and athletes account for the majority of the entries in the first edition, which emphasizes twentieth-century figures. Also represented are politicians, military leaders, underworld figures, religious leaders, and others.

TWO KINDS OF ENTRIES... Main entries give: original name, dates of birth and/or death, up to three source codes, nationality, occupation, and assumed name(s). The codes guide researchers to the sources used, which often contain biographical and other information about the individual. Appearing in the same alphabet are assumed name entries, which are cross references to main entries.

SUPPLEMENTS IN PREPARATION... New Pseudonyms and Nicknames will consist of two inter-edition supplements providing entries on 14,000 assumed names of 11,000 people. First supplement ready early 1981. ISBN 0-8103-0548-8. Softbound. $45.00/both. (SO)
