NOTICE

Respondents to advertisers offering faculty "rank" and "status" are advised that these terms are ambiguous and should inquire as to benefits involved.

All advertisements submitted by institutions offering positions must include a salary range. The range should provide the applicant with an indication of the salary the institution is willing to provide for the position offered.

All advertisements for the Positions Wanted and the Positions Open classifications will be edited to exclude direct or indirect references to race, creed, color, age, and sex as conditions of employment.

Classified advertising orders and copy, and cancellations, should be addressed to the Advertising Department, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago 60611, and should reach that office before the second of the month preceding publication of issue desired. Copy received after that time may be held for the next issue.

Rate for classified advertising is $1.25 per printed line. No additional charge is made for nonmember advertising.

Librarians—

How you and architects can plan a library. LANGMEAD, Stephen and BECKMAN, Margaret. New Library Design: Guidelines to Planning Academic Library Buildings. 117p. 0-471-51717-8 70-155107 $12.25.

This book helps librarians work with architects to plan and design university and college libraries.

The book first identifies the problems involved and gives the implications of a variety of solutions. Then it provides precise guidelines to planning procedures. The emphasis is on the architect's role in the planning process and the need to coordinate a new library system and a new building. Sizing analysis stressing computer technology is discussed.

Representative

PUBLISHERS' LIBRARY REPRESENTATIVE. As a leading publishing house specializing in the provision of works of bibliographic reference, we wish to engage a qualified and experienced librarian who can visit and meet on equal terms with senior staff of academic and research libraries throughout North America. We have no preconceptions about sex, age, or race. The position offers genuine career opportunity for someone interested and able to sell, on the basis of an informed, personal conviction, publications which are of fundamental importance and proven value to libraries and to scholarship. The job demands independence, integrity, initiative, and a high degree of personal responsibility. It offers travel, freedom from routine, the opportunity to shape a life for oneself and the prospect of earning a good living while doing so. Depending on qualifications and experience, the starting salary will be between $8,000 and $12,000. All traveling expenses and a subsistence allowance will be paid. A thorough training, partly in England, is envisaged. Interviews will be held in the United States and it is hoped the work can begin early in 1972. If interested, write and say why, together with a full curriculum vitae to the Managing Director, Mansell, 3 Bloomsbury Place, London, WC1A, 2QA, England.

BIBLIOGRAPHER FOR HISTORY. Broad knowledge of the general subject area (North American and British history and history of Western Europe), its bibliographic tools, current publishers' output, and bibliosearch procedures is required. In-depth knowledge of a particular aspect of the subject, knowledge of out-of-print material and antiquarian dealers, and some related language fluency would be helpful. Salary is $9,000. Send resume to R. Max Willocks, Assistant Director of Libraries, 208 Carnegie, Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY 13210.

READERS SERVICES LIBRARIAN. Supervision of all public services including circulation, maintenance of partial U. S. Government Document depository, interlibrary loans. MLS from accredited school and minimum of three years' experience required. Graduate work in a subject field desirable. Beginning 12-month salary $10,020. Choice of retirement plans including State, TIAA-CREF. Group medical and disability insurance. Month vacation. Send resume to Lester K. Smith, Library Director, Concord College, Athens, WV 24712.

WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY. Education Librarian in Educational Resources Center, a joint venture between the University Libraries and the College of Education. The award-winning ERC combines the best of library and audiovisual facilities and practices into a single center for the improvement of instruction and learning. Staff consists of the Director of the Center, 4 education librarians, 6 audiovisual specialists, several nonprofessional assistants, and student help. MLS required. Experience in public schools desirable. Faculty status. Excellent fringe-benefit program. Salary range begins at $9,500. Actual salary and rank commensurate with experience and qualifications. Send vitae and references to Carl H. Sachtleben, Dir. of Libraries, Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, MI 49001.

MAP LIBRARIAN. To develop acquisitions program and organize a map collection of 70,000 items. Salary $8,700-$12,000, depending on qualifications. Faculty rank, month vacation, eligibility for sabbatical leave, and participation in Illinois University retirement system. Apply to Donald Thompson, Social Science/Business Librarian, Lovejoy Library, Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, IL 62025.
